

Seattle Golf Club

Dress Code & Cell Phone Policy

Dress Code

All Guests must adhere to SGC policies and rules. All members and guests, regardless of the purpose of your visit shall be suitably attired in traditional business attire.

No jeans or denim of any kind, tank tops, halter tops, cut off pants, cargo pants or short, tennis shorts, bathing suits, bare midriffs, sweat suits or gymnasium attire.

Members are responsible for their guests being properly attired.

Guests must remain in assigned areas only. Locker rooms and certain areas of the club will be locked during non-member events and bookings. The golf course grounds and practice putting area are off limits to all guests before and during any private event. If you wish to have outdoor photographs taken, you may do so on the decks or on the oval lawn in front of the clubhouse. The party host will be held responsible for any damage to Seattle Golf Club.

Cell Phone Policy

The use of any Personal Electronic Device (PED) for making or receiving phone calls is strictly prohibited at all facilities of the Club except for the following:

- While seated inside a licensed vehicle in the Seattle Golf Club parking lots
- In the case of a medical emergency.

All ringtones must be turned off or switched to vibrate mode at all times while on Seattle Golf Club Premises.
